INTRODUCTION

1. IAAAP is a non-profit institution and it's goal is the professional advancement of Animal-Assisted Psychotherapy (AAP)
2. IAAAP will be in contact with similar professional associations in Israel and in the world.
3. There is nothing in Clause 1 that negates the salaried employment of managers and/or employees in other positions
4. The employment of salaried managerial workers and/or people in other positions is conditional to the annual approval of the general assembly.

GOALS

5. Advancement of the academic and professional development of the members of IAAAP that work in the area of AAP
6. Activity that advances and supports aspects that accompany IAAAP’s members in their work as therapists
7. Advancement of professional ethics, whether concerning therapists or animals (both within and outside of therapy)
8. The development of professional supervision and tools for supervision in the area of AAP
9. Advancement of research and publications in the area of AAP
10. Advancement of the recognition by the general public of AAP
11. Advancement of the recognition, by relevant governmental bodies, of AAP as psychotherapy

RESPONSIBILITIES

12. IAAAP is an official body with legal rights and obligations.
13. The assets and funds of IAAAP will be used only in the service of the advancement of its goals and will not be divided up between the members in any manner.
MEMBERSHIP

14. The founders of IAAAP are members from the day of the registration of IAAAP in the Foundation Registry.

15. Anyone may be accepted as a member of IAAAP who is a graduate of a training program in AAP and fits the criteria of prerequisite education, academic and field training in the area of AAP, and supervision, and who has filed the proper credentials as follows:

a) Former education – B.A. or B.S. from an institution recognized by the Israeli Council for Higher Education in an area related to psychotherapy (such as social work, psychology, clinical criminology, art therapy, drama therapy), and/or medicine (such as medicine, nursing, paramedical professions), and/or educational profession (such as special education, counseling), and/or life sciences (such as biology, zoology, veterinary science).

- Before the beginning of studies in AAP or in conjunction with them, the candidate must have studied four introductory courses as follows: introduction to psychology (at least one semester), psychopathology or abnormal psychology (at least one semester), developmental psychology (at least one semester), and psychological theories of personality (at least one semester).

- A case of an applicant having a different course of studies than that stated above will be left to the judgment of the Membership Committee.

b) Academic training in the field of AAP – Academic studies are to be completed within the framework of certificate studies programs in an institution recognized by the Israeli Council for Higher Education and must include at least 1100 actual academic hours, not including field training, and will include the following subjects: psychology, psychotherapy, acquaintance with special needs populations and methods of work with them, animal science, ethics in AAP, the human-animal connection, AAP, group supervision, and 400 hours practicum accompanied by individual supervision approved by the director of the training program.

16. The level of the IAAAP member will be determined according to the following clauses and the requirements for employment as an AAP therapist in a framework recognized by and under the inspection by a governmental body (health, welfare, prison system, internal security, education, and others), and/or recognized by the Council of Psychologists/Social Workers, Arts Therapy Association, and other professional therapy associations (according to the decision of the IAAAP committee of continuing education).

All continuing education studies must be recognized by the IAAAP committee of continuing education or by the Israeli Council for Higher Education. The member is obligated to receive clinical supervision from a supervisor fulfilling at least one of the following requirements:
- An AAP therapist ranked as a supervisor, as detailed in clause 17.

All the following must have at least five years of clinical experience:
- Licensed clinical psychologist
- Arts therapist at the level recognized as supervisor by the Arts Therapy Association
- MSW Social worker from a clinical field
- Licensed psychiatrist having studied at least 350 hours of psychotherapy studies
- Supervisor recognized by the Association of Psychotherapists or Association of Family Therapists, or supervisor from a psychotherapy field holding a masters degree, who received training from an institution recognized by the Israeli Council for Higher Education

It is preferable that the supervisor from a field other than AAP have a tie to or affinity for the field of AAP.

17. The ranking (and advancement of rank) of members of IAAAP – After acceptance of a candidate to membership, the level will be decided according to hours of academic training, continuing education in the field, and field therapy work accompanied by supervision. The ranking is as follows:

Founder of IAAAP –
- a) One whose signature is found on the following documents: "Request for the Registration of a Foundation", "Declaration" and "Bylaws".
- b) A founder of IAAAP will be ranked at the level of Expert Therapist or higher and will have the right to be voted into any position, without connection to his/her level.
- c) At the end of 5 years, a founder who is chair of a committee will be required to prove that she has received the academic training according to the level required for that position in order to continue in that position.

Honorary Member (unranked) – Those who have uniquely contributed to the area of AAP and do not fit the criteria as detailed in Clause 15b. An honorary member will be accepted as a member of IAAAP according to the decision of the Exceptions and Appeals Committee at their discretion, without the possibility of being ranked.

B. Studied in a training program (including at least 280 hours of study) for clinical supervisors, and an additional 1000 hours of direct therapy hours accompanied by at least one hour of individual supervision for every 15 hours of direct therapy.

C. Considered to be appropriate to supervise by the Special Exceptions committee

* After obtaining the level of Clinical Supervisor, the member is expected to continue receiving clinical supervision and to receive supervision for his/work as clinical supervisor.

Senior Supervisor – A member who fits one of the following criteria:

A. Five years has passed since achieving the level of Clinical Supervisor.

B. Has supervised for at least 500 hours, accompanied by supervision.

18. The following professional achievements in the area of AAP will be recognized in the determination of the member's rank:
- a book published in the area of AAP (one or two writers) – worth up to 650 hours of academic study
- a chapter in a book, or an article that is published in a journal with critical guidelines for acceptance, or an article published in a collection of articles – worth up to 150 hours of academic study
- a plenary lecture presented in an international convention or in a national seminar or convention – worth up to 150 hours of academic study (in the case of 2 or more names on the presentation, the hours will be divided accordingly)
- Academic or research activity, or volunteer activity that advances the goals of IAAAP, subject to the approval of the Board, will lead to credit for hours of preparation. In the case of teaching courses, for the first year only of a course, compensation will be awarded for the extent of preparation: the number of hours of preparation will count as double that of the number of teaching hours in addition to the number of actual teaching hours.

One must provide a copy of the volume, or first page or printed version, of the article or the book. In the case of a lecture or presentation, one must provide the convention program showing the name of the presenter and the abstract of the lecture/presentation.

19. The decision concerning the ranking of a member of IAAAP will be made by the Membership Committee, after it has been proven to fit the requirements of the level, after the payment of membership dues.

20. Yearly renewal of membership in the IAAAP will be given with paying annual dues. After three years of acceptance into membership or advancement of level, renewal of membership will entail filling in forms with details of therapy hours and clinical supervision according to the requirements of the member’s level.

MEMBER’S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

21. A member of IAAAP has the right to participate and vote in every meeting of the general assembly and will have one vote in each election. A member will have the right to vote and be voted on for each committee of IAAAP.

22. A member of IAAAP has the right to participate in the association’s activities and to enjoy all the services of the association.
